Meeting of Days.

Beginning on Sunday, July 7th, the Abbeville Baptist church will commence a meeting which will probably continue for ten days. On Monday night, Rev. J. D. Chapman, D. D., of Anderson, is expected, and will preach twice a day, at 10 a. m. and 8:30 p. m., during the entire series. A prominent gentleman in our city, who knew him well in Anderson, said the other day: "I am glad he is coming. He is the best man I ever knew." Of course we shall be glad to see every one present at every meeting.
A. C. Wilkins, Pastor.

John J. Guillebeau.

John J. Guillebeau, the subject of this sketch was born in Abbeville County, S. C., on the 28th of August, 1818, was married to Mrs. Sarah E. Martin on the 3rd of October, 1856. He united with the Baptist Church at Buffalo August 1882 and moved to Lincoln County, Ga., the following December, transferred his membership to New Hope Church, Lincoln, Ga., in 1890, where he remained a faithful member until his death, which occurred on the 28th of May, 1907. He was a brother of the late J. L. Guillebeau, and the last survivor of the family. He left a wife, five sons and one daughter to mourn his death. Three daughters and two sons preceded him to the grave.

House Burned.

The home of Mr. John Simpson near Due West was burned last week. The fire caught from the stove, probably from a defective flue, which caused more houses to burn than all other agents.
Everything was lost. There was some insurance on the house.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Smith Return.

Mr. J. Allen Smith, Jr., and his bride returned last week from an extended visit north. During their tour Mr. and Mrs. Smith stopped at the Jamestown exposition. Mr. Smith is a close observer and what he saw at the exposition did not impress him favorably. He thinks the Jamestown show is behind in interest compared with other expositions of the same class.

How is this for a Cabbage.

If all the farmers of the cotton section made as big crops as Mr. Will R. Ellis of this County, cotton would be reduced to five cents per pound and provision given away. A few days ago he brought a cabbage to town weighing 15-16 lbs., and there are plenty more like it where this one came from.
Mr. Ellis has perhaps the finest barn in the state and it is always filled to order during the winter. It is a good object lesson to go over his farm; to see his splendid stock and well worked crops.

At Their Old Home.

Judge J. Fuller Lyon, and Attorney General Lyon are in the city for a few days. Abbeville has given some of her best men to the service of the State. They have moved out from amongst us and what he saw at the exposition did not impress him favorably. He thinks the Jamestown show is behind in interest compared with other expositions of the same class.

Lumber Wanted.

Wanted. To contract at once for three hundred thousand feet of framing lumber.
Frederic Minshall, Abbeville, S. C.

Scholarships.

There are two vacant scholarships at Wintthrop College to be awarded July 5. Application blanks can be had at the office of Superintendent of Education.
R. B. Cheatham, Co. Supt. Education.

Land Sale.

Mr. R. C. Wilson has sold his home near the city to Mr. DeWitt Hall.
The tract contains 25 acres and has a good dwelling on it. The place brought $54.41 per acre.

Automobiles.

The automobile fever has struck the town. Several are thinking of investing in machines. Messrs. Harrison & Waidrop have just received five more machines.

Lost.

A watch and gold fob set with diamond initial E. L. V. engraved on fob, between P. Rosenberg's store and the baseball field, Tuesday afternoon. Liberal reward if returned to E. L. Vianakka.

A patriotic feature of the picnic at Hanley's July 4th will be an address appropriate to the occasion by J. M. Nickles, Esq., of the Abbeville Bar. All who attend will have an opportunity to hear an eloquent oration.

RECEPTION TO MRS. SMITH.
Friday afternoon Miss Rosa Maxwell gave a beautiful reception in honor of Mrs. J. Allen Smith, Jr.

The home was a bower of loveliness being banked with aparagus, ferns and pot plants, bowls of sweet peas, daisies and nasturtiums added brightness and color. Miss Maxwell was assisted in receiving by Mrs. J. M. Haddon, Mrs. A. J. Spencer, Mrs. Fred Marshall, Miss Grace Smith, Mrs. R. E. Thompson, Miss Plevna Seal, Miss May Robertson and Miss Haddon received in the hall. Miss Helen Smith, Miss Calhoun and Miss Orie Moore, the Holman and Miss Mary Hill served the guests with delightful cream and cake.

Miss Louise Smith presented each guest with a toy Japanese fan or umbrella as a souvenir of the happy occasion. In the hall refreshing punch was served by Miss Lily Templeton. During the evening sixty ladies called.

Miss May Robertson entertained a few of her friends Monday afternoon in honor of Miss Harris who is in the city visiting her sisters Mrs. Link and Mrs. Parker. Miss Robertson's entertainment was indeed a delightful affair. The entire lower floor was thrown into one and the beautiful ferns and pot plants that is one of this home's great attractions were banked and arranged about the long rooms. Sweet peas, nasturtiums and red geraniums gave a touch of color. Miss Robertson's guests were Mrs. Ferguson, Mrs. S. G. Thompson, Mrs. R. S. Link, Mrs. L. C. Parker, Mrs. R. E. L. of Cason, Mrs. J. ATTENTION, FARMERS!

Big Meeting in Abbeville Thursday, July 25th.

Editor Press and Banner:
I have just received a letter from H. H. K. D. Smith, President of South Carolina division of Southern Cotton Association, saying F. H. Hyatt, Hon. F. H. Western and himself, will make a canvass of the State, speaking in every county beginning 1st July.

They will speak in the Court House in the city of Abbeville 25th July, 1st and afterwards to meet all or some of the farmers, merchants and bankers and other business men as possible. They will tell us all about the plan adopted at Birmingham to finance the cotton crop and other important items connected with the cotton trade as farmers see it that we will never again allow our cotton thrown on the market at a loss to the producer. We can prevent it if we stand by our organization, and get the aid and cooperation of the business men with whom we are associated and deal with it as we have a big rally on Thursday 25th July, 1907, in the Court House in the city of Abbeville. They are good speakers and I am sure they will interest you. We all know what incalculable benefits the Association has been to the farmer the very thing for three years, and have every reason to believe it will be in better condition to serve us in the future. Don't forget the day, July 25th.

J. A. Kellar,
Pres. A. C. Association.

A Fortunate Texan.
Mr. E. W. Goodloe, of 107 St. Louis St., Dallas, Tex., says: "In the last year I have become acquainted with Dr. King's New Life Pills, and no laxative I ever before tried so effectually disposes of malaria and biliousness." They don't grind nor gripe. 25c. at P. B. Speed's drug store.

HADDON'S
THE STORE FOR THE PEOPLE!

The increase in our business for the past five months means something. There must be a cause for it. We think there are several:

1. Our long experience enables us to select goods that please the public.
2. Our large sales require constant additions to our stock, therefore, we always have the latest goods to offer.
3. The immense volume of trade enables us to do business with the smallest possible margin of profits.
4. Our customers appreciate our efforts in their behalf.

THE R. M. HADDON COMPANY.

"There is a time for all things."

With us this is a time for offering Bargains and we feel that we can very quickly convince any one of this fact—if only the opportunity is afforded us to show the moving prices marked on our Clothing. The effect of such Bargains as we are offering in Clothing dispel the hard-times-cry and brings forth the ready cash like the Spring showers on a newly planted crop. Some of this Clothing is carried over stock, but so well kept, as not to be noticed if not told of it.

We feel sure of pleasing. The prices are right.
